

K-LOVE has served me and my family spiritually in my community for several years as well as others I know. The faith initiative provided by K-LOVE in my community is very important and would have a detrimental effect on my community if it were displaced.